President's Message

Carol Jones

As you returned to the ice from the Holidays to enjoy the second half of the curling season, I hope you had an opportunity to check out the logos in the houses of sheets 2 and 4. Andersen Windows and Jay-K are the main sponsors of the 2004 Mitchell Bonspiel. The club will net $500 from their sponsorship of this event. Seahorse Travel has agreed to be the sponsor of the Marie Cobb Bonspiel. With their donation of $600, the Marie Cobb committee has put together a raffle for a $1200 travel get-away, which could turn that $600 into thousands for the club after ticket sales! This is our first real attempt at providing ‘in-house’ ice ads to sponsors (outside of the Nationals). We hope you will see more and more ads such as these in our future. Many thanks to Jim and Chris Gleason, Brian and Marj Moore, and Dean Kelly for obtaining Seahorse Travel, Andersen Windows and Jay-K lumber as sponsors to our Marie Cobb and Mitchell Bonspiels.

The Utica Curling Club is offering groups and organizations learn-to-curl packages. Many have already taken us up on this rare upstate opportunity. In January members of the Waterville Optimists, Utica College faculty and the Canadian North East Air Defense can all be seen at the club in gripper and slider finding fun in the sport of throwing rocks at friends and coworkers! Come February the NY Power Authority and the New Hartford Rotary plan to try their luck on the ice. These learn-to-curl events are also a means to raise money for the club. If you know of a company or organization that might be interested in a half-day or full-day event, contact me, Carol Jones.

Though the Utica Board of Directors continues to look for ways to increase revenues for the curling club, expenses continue to rise. The Board and finance committee are holding a special meeting this coming month to discuss many revenue enhancement opportunities as well as possible cost-cutting programs. It is our intention to develop strategies and goals and present them at this year’s annual meeting in April. Member input throughout this planning process is always welcome and appreciated.

5th Annual Charity Curling Challenge

Due to popular demand, the Charity Curling Challenge has been scheduled at the Utica Curling Club for Saturday, March 6, 2004. This event has introduced curling to area non-curlers and also made a difference in the community by raising money for up to 12 local and national charities each year. Over $15,000 has been raised and donated since 1999. We need your help to continue the success of this event!

There are many ways you can volunteer to make the 5th Annual Charity Curling Challenge a success. You can organize a team from your friends or workplace. You can help to coach a team to victory, or simply share the camaraderie of curling and be part of the cheering section.

Please consider helping us out. To volunteer, please sign up on the bulletin board or for more information contact Colleen Thomas (h) 831-4253 or (w) 738-2613 or email colleen.thomas@frontiernet.net

93rd Mitchell Bonspiel

Don Knapp

The 93rd Mitchell Bonspiel, marking the 119th Anniversary of the Mitchell Medal was recently held at the UCC. Thirty six teams from Canada, as well as the U.S., came to curl and party. The results are:

MITCHELL MEDAL - Winner - Ottawa *1 skipped by Roger Mitchell. Runner up - RCMP *1 skipped by Ewen MacMillan, with Mike Sexton playing second.

COUNTRY CLUB CUP - Winner - Navy *1 skipped by Johnny Morrissey. Runner up - Navan skipped by Jerry Galver.

EVANS MEDAL - Winner - Schenectady *1 skipped by Bob Mulig. Runner up - Oakville skipped by Michael Detje.

FRIENDSHIP TROPHY - Winner - Rideau *1 skipped Doug Sears. Runner up - Hylands skipped by Frank VanRyckegham.

SARANAC AWARD - Winner - Royal Kingston skipped by David Cox. Runner up RCMP *2 skipped by Gerals Doucet.

By all accounts this year’s Mitchell continued the tradition of being one of the finest Bonspiels around. This is only possible through the hard work of a great many people. Toddy bowl: Joan, Gloria, Barb, Carol, Donna, Cherrie, Ann. Pete for setting up the house parties, and Brad, Teri, Sue & Gary, and Mike for hosting the house parties, Dean for getting ads for the booklet. Denise, Yva, Barb for working the welcoming table. They, along with Marge and especially Chris Gleason made the 50-50 raffles a huge success. Wow. Great job! Dan helped set up the food, which got rave reviews, as well as donating some of the breakfast food. Thanks to Joe and his kitchen staff. Mark and his bartenders were very well busy all weekend. Jim Gleason and his ice crew had the ice in amazing shape. Teal for singing the Anthems. Paul for putting up the flags. Thanks also to Michelle MacEnroe for taking pictures - and a very special note of appreciation to Tom Flishing for his work to update the Mitchell medal after a lapse of 18 years. My co chairs Mike, Bill, Tom and Fred who did hundreds of things. If I forgot anyone, which I am sure I did, I apologize. It's only because I was doing this at the last minute. Thank you all for your help.

Martha Hoffman, Dick & Linda Robinson, chairs
Don Knapp & Denise Fusco, co-chairs

The 2004 Calder Conley Hurd Bonspiel was held on January 2, 3, & 4, 2004 with a 20 team Bonspiel. This is a very old and prestigious three medal in-house event. The Calder medal dates back to 1892 and the Conley to 1904. The Trophy's for these events are truly beautiful. We were so honored to have Dr. Robert Hurd come to present the Hurd pins. The Conley was presented by former president, Don Knapp and the Calder by our sitting president, Carol Jones.

We had some very competitive curling and the winners were:

Caulder winner: Don Knapp, skip; Michelle MacEnroe, vice; Paul MacEnroe, 2nd & Lisa Magnarelli, lead. Runner up: Les Cortright, skip; Yvonne Cortright, vice; Kip Wagner 2nd, Barb Felice, lead.
Conley winner: Bill Morehouse, skip; Deb Morehouse, vice; Doug Pens, 2nd, & Eileen Pens, lead. Runner up: Pat Costello, skip; Marie Costella, vice; Don Zillioux, 2nd & Ginger Zillioux, lead.
D-Event winner: Dale Jones, skip; Marge Moore, vice; Pete Sheridan, 2nd & Doreen Hayes, lead. Runner up: Brian Moore, skip; Carol Jones, vice; Jim Schafer, 2nd & Jennifer Crane, lead.

The Rose Bonspiel
Susan and Gary Williams, Eileen and Doug Pens, co-chairs

Yes, this event is two months off - but it's never too early to jot down in your calendar March 25, 26, and 27 -- Rose Bonspiel and Closing party. It's always a great party - full of tradition and surprises. The compressor is toasted. Ed and Ellen Boerger present the Rose trophy and tell the story about Jack and Ann Rose. The place is decorated with roses - of course. We talk about the season that has passed and share our spring and summer plans.

Everyone plays three games in one of three draws with pre-arranged times. It is a point spiel and awards are given to the top two teams winning 3-game, 2-game and 1-game high. In addition, the lead and second, and the skip and vice skip switch positions in the second game. This is one of those "tradition" situations!

Talk about surprises! This year the added event will be the drawing for the $12,000 vacation. Be sure to get your tickets. You might be pleasantly surprised!

So - get your teams together and plan to participate in this very special event. Look for the sign-up sheet on the mixed board.

Women’s Club Championship:
February 26, 28th, and 29th
Cindy Brown, Kathy Palazzoli, Cindy Ciaralli, Barb Felice

The sign up sheet is posted for the Glengarry Challenge club championship. This is an excellent chance for our 5 year and under curlers to play together in competition before the Women's Challenge in March. We also encourage our veteran teams to join in a weekend of excellent curling too.

The entry fee of $25.00 per person includes: dinner after curling on the 26th, lunch on the 28th, and breakfast for both morning draws on the 28th and 29th. February 12th is the deadline to enter a team. Please see any member of the committee should you have questions.

The Women's Challenge:

Summer Camp Utica

Dear Five Year and Under Curlers,

The time has come to air out your vocal chords, and polish your curling skills for the 14th Annual Women's Challenge. Our theme is summer camp which has inspired our camp staff to provide a weekend reminiscent of your youthful camping days.

Liz Williams your 5 year representative has all the registration information. Please send in your entry form to Cindy Ciaralli by February 1st to reserve a bunk in one of our draws. We encourage all eligible curlers to join in the fun of this wonderful curling tradition that blends competition and friendship.

We would also like to invite all Glengarrries to join our opening party on March 18th. A sign up sheet will be posted in the ladies locker room for those interested in attending. Campers always like a warm welcome when traveling so far from home. An invitation is also extended to the entire membership to come and watch some great curling that weekend. We look forward to a wonderful time hosting this GNCC and USWCA sponsored event here in Utica.

Sincerely yours,
Cindy Ciaralli, Camp Director
Liz DeGironimo, Activities Director
Barb Felice, Unit Leader
Cindy Kelley, Camp Counselor
Gloria Petrie, Camp Publicist
