Watch For Mixed News!

Just a little reminder from the Mixed Committee Chair. The mixed board will be in a different location this season. It is moving to the first cork board as you walk toward the men’s locker room (not the one directly next to the door). There will be a new sign above the mixed board, designating it as such. We have outgrown the old board. Any questions, please give me a call, Heather Swiercz 737-4105.
Broom Hanging
Don Knapp

Late during the last curling season the Board received a request from a Club member. The request was to be able to select a spot on the broom rack for their own broom. For this privilege the member was willing to make a donation to the Club. At first the Board thought was not a particularly good idea. I was astonished that the Board was turning down a potential revenue source. As is often the case, when you open your big mouth it comes back to haunt you. At my urging the Board decided to implement this program, with myself as the Chair.

You may be wondering "Why anyone would want to pay for a spot to hang your broom?" How many times have you played a game, shall we say, deliberate, analytical skip. By the time you are finally off the ice you are hanging your broom down by the compressor room and the next time you curl it takes you 5 minutes to find your broom because you can't believe it is way down there. Or worse yet you get picked in a league by a deliberate and analytical skip and this happens for 10 weeks in a row. Or even worse you are married to a deliberate, overly analytical skip and you begin to think the King's Cup is the best event of all time because you don't have to curl with your deliberate, analytical spouse.

To help all these people out, and to help the Club also, the Board is beginning a new program for next curling season. For a $50 tax deductible donation to the Burn the Mortgage Fund, any member of the Club can select a spot to hang a broom. The member is responsible for securing their broom and for identifying their spot on the broom rack. A lottery drawing will be held at the Opening Party to determine the order of selection for spots. You need not be present to win. Checks can be made out to the Utica Curling Club and can be mailed to my home address: 2549 Sulphur Springs Road, Sauquoit 13456. Any questions please contact me at 794-8657.
